Pictured above are staff and students, from the Institute of Biomedical Engineering, who volunteered their time to register guests.

Professor Molly Shoichet, Professor Zhanfeng Cui and Dr David Dunham meet two former Medtronic scholars at Keble College. Over the last five years the Medtronic Foundation has generously supported six biomedical engineering scholars.

Medtronic scholars (Eleonora Mylonopoulou and Ioanna Zafeiri) enjoy tea at Keble College and give an update on their careers since finishing their scholarships.
